PUBLIC REPORT

—OF A—

POLICEMAN.

I have not enjoyed good health for several years past, yet have not allowed it to interfere with my labor. Every one belonging to the laboring class knows the inconvenience of being obliged to labor when the body, from debility, almost refuses to perform its daily task. I never was a believer in dosing with medicines; but having heard the VEGETINE spoken of so highly, was determined to try it, and shall never regret that determination. As a tonic (which every one needs at some time) it surpasses anything I ever heard of. It invigorates the whole system; it is a great cleanser and purifier of the blood. There are many of my acquaintances who have taken it, and all unite in praise of its satisfactory effect.

Especially among the aged class of people, it imparts to them the one thing most needful in old age—nights of calm, sweet repose, thereby strengthening the mind as well as the body. One aged lady, who has been suffering through life from scrofula, and has become blind from its effects, having tried many remedies with no favorable result, was induced by friends to try the VEGETINE. After taking a few bottles, she obtained such great relief that she expressed a wish for her sight, that she might be able to look upon the man who had sent for such a blessing.

Yours Respectfully,
O. P. H. HODGE, Police Officer, Station 6.
BOSTON, Mass., May, 9, 1871.

HEARTFELT PRAYER.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 22, 1861.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq:

Dear Sir—I should be wanting in gratitude, if I failed to acknowledge what the VEGETINE has done for me. I was attacked about eleven months since with Bronchitis, which settled into Consumption. I had night sweats and fever chills; was distressed for breath, and frequently spit blood; was all emaciated, very weak, and so low that my friends thought my case hopeless.

I was advised to make a trial of the VEGETINE, which, under the providence of God, has cured me. That he may bless the use of your medicine to others, as he has to me, and that his divine grace may attend you, is the heartfelt prayer of your admiring, humble servant,

BENJAMIN PETTINGILL.

P. S.—Mine is but one among the many cures your medicine has effected in this place. B. P.

MAKE IT PUBLIC.

SOUTH BOSTON, Feb. 9, 1871.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.

Dear Sir—I have heard from very many sources of the great success of VEGETINE in cases of Scrofula, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Catarrh, and other diseases of kindred nature. I make no hesitation in saying that I know VEGETINE to be the most reliable remedy for Catarrh and General Debility.

My wife has been troubled with Catarrh for many years, and at times very badly. She has thoroughly tried every supposed remedy that we could hear of, and with all this she has for several years been gradually growing worse, and the discharge from the head was excessive and very offensive.

She was in this condition when she commenced to take VEGETINE; I could see that she was improving on the second bottle. She continued taking the VEGETINE until she had used from twelve to fifteen bottles. I am now happy in informing you and the public (if you choose to make it public) that she is entirely cured, and VEGETINE accomplished the cure after nothing else would. Hence I feel justified in saying that VEGETINE is the most reliable remedy, and would advise all suffering humanity to try it, for I believe it to be a good, honest, vegetable medicine, and I shall not hesitate to recommend it. I am, &c., respectfully, L. C. CARELL,
Store 451 Broadway.

VEGETINE acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cleanses and cures ulceration, cures constipation, and regulates the bowels.

Has Entirely Cured Me.

BOSTON, October, 1870.

MR. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—My daughter, after having a severe attack of whooping cough, was left in a feeble state of health. Being advised by a friend she tried the VEGETINE, and after using a few bottles was fully restored to health.

I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism. I have taken several bottles of the VEGETINE, for this complaint, and am happy to say it has entirely cured me. I have recommended the VEGETINE to others, with the same good results. It is a great cleanser and purifier of the blood; it is pleasant to take; and I can cheerfully recommend it.

TO PHYSICIANS AND INVALIDS.

The flexible, self-applying Electric Disks, Dr. Garratt's invention, make without care or trouble, "gentle and prolonged applications" of very fine primary currents. They prove sufficiently active and durable for this peculiar method.

While worn by night or day for cold rheumatic neuralgia, lameness, weakness, or chronic pains, the disk is sure to generate and apply its constant multipolar electric action. Each metal acts as element and pole. They are wired avalanche for deep polar inworking. As shown by the expert judges, and in practice, these disks excel all other attempts at this sort of appliance. Nothing like them.

Large disk, $2.50. Children's $1. Other sizes. Also, one new Insulating Chest Protector, $6., Children's, 50c. Sold by druggists and surgical instrument dealers. Sent by mail on receipt of price, by GARRATT & CO., 6 Hamilton Place, Boston, Mass. jy18

GENERAL NEWS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

ZACH CHANDLER ON THE STAND.

OPINION OF JUDGE BLACK.

Reports from the Southern States.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14, Evening.

The democrats have virtually deposed Proctor Knott from the committee on the rights of the House on the electoral question, his bill on counting the votes being too much even for them. David Dudley Field was appointed on Friday an additional member, and that night a subpoena was issued for Secretary Zachariah Chandler, and on Saturday, Field as acting chairman of the committee, proceeded to examine him upon his whole course as chairman of the republican committee with respect to the campaign in the southern states. The whole affair was an

Impertinence Never Contemplated by the House,

when Knott's committee were appointed, and was cooked up by Field in the interest of Hewitt. Field, however, found it very different to manage a witness with Chandler's experience about Congress before a committee from conducting Tilden's or Tweed's suits in New York.

Field's Struggles with Zach Chandler.

He asked Mr. Chandler if he had sent telegrams to Gov. Stearns in Florida. Chandler said he had, and that the democratic operators had taken them off the wires and given them to the news papers, and so far as he had seen them in print they were genuine. He had not sent William E. Chandler there, or given him money to go with, or for going. He had received political telegrams from the South and given them to the press. So far as he knew, he had no copies. Wm. E. Chandler had reported daily through the newspapers. He had neither sent nor received any telegrams which he was not perfectly willing to have printed. He was ordered to bring copies, Monday, of these, and his letters and accounts. He was also questioned about his dealings with the Louisiana campaign, and asked to bring all his correspondence about that. The whole affair seems to be a dodge on the part of the shrewder democrats to lay the basis for a charge of conspiracy on the part of Grant and his cabinet to count in Hayes by the use of money. Poor Proctor Knott was not considered equal to the management of such a plan, and so Dudley Field was selected to supplant him.

Judge Black's Opinion.

Some of the democrats are worrying over the discovery that Judge Jerry Black does not believe that Congress has any of the powers of a Returning Board. While he sees a method of seating Tilden without assuming such powers, some good democrats do not see their way to such result without the House at least claiming the right to reject returns. He is reported, however, to favor a proposition that the House has the constitutional right to judge whether there has been an election, and if, in its opinion, there has been no choice, to proceed to an election. There are, however, a good many democrats who concede that and who declare that they do not intend by their votes to place the democratic party again in the position of rebels, whatever wrong they may think the republicans guilty of.

Such a Course would be Revolution,

The Reports from South Carolina and Florida.

Members of the Senate South Carolina and Florida committees have arrived. The final opinion in reference to South Carolina has ceased to be of special interest so far as the electoral vote of the state is concerned, since the return of Mr. Sayler's committee. The opinion of the republicans of the Florida committee is that that state was fairly carried by Hayes, and that the fact can be made apparent to the country.

What the Committee Found in Louisiana.

Representative Danford returned this morning from New Orleans. He is fully satisfied that the country will agree, when it sees the evidence, that the six rejected parishes were justly and legally thrown out. His statements for the sections of the state he visited agree perfectly with those of Mr. Crapo. The rest of the committee will leave New Orleans Tuesday. On last Monday night, all had a demonstration of the fact that armed political bodies existed in the state, as Ogden ordered out the Crescent City White Liners, and they appeared armed fifteen hundred strong, and the next morning were sworn in as Nicholls militia.

THE RECORD OF FIRES.

Near Indianapolis.—Loss $12,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 13.

The Irvington House, near Indianapolis, was burned today. Loss $12,000.

At St. Catherine's, Ont.—Loss $120,000.

ST. CATHERINE'S, Ont., Jan. 13.

The Welland Vale Manufacturing Company's works were burned. Loss $120,000.

At Scranton, Pa.—Loss $100,000.

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 13.

The Exchange Block, comprising three large stores and a large number of law offices, were burned today, including Thompson's book store, Coursen's grocery, and Miss Coursen's millinery. Loss $100,000.

In Rondout, N. Y.—Loss $20,000.

RONDOUT, N. Y., Jan. 13.

A fire this morning destroyed the cabinet shop, dwelling and barn of Michael Stock, a bakery, grocery, the slaughter house of Frederick Weber, and several dwellings. The fire is believed to be incendiary. Loss over $20,000; insurance $12,000.

THE MAY-BENNETT DUEL.

The Governor of Delaware Has no Jurisdiction.

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 13.

Gov. Cochrane has not sent a requisition to Albany for the bodies of May and Bennett, nor will he do so, as the duel took place in Maryland.

The Fight in Maryland—May Still Under Treatment.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 14.

District Attorney Russam, of Carolina county, Md., is in this city. He says the scene of the duel was about 400 yards from the Delaware line, near Marydel; that his informant tells him May was hit and was attended by Dr. Allen Smith, of Baltimore; that the patient was in a ducking house on Gunpowder Creek.

The Russian Grand Duke Alexis at Norfolk.

NORFOLK, Jan 13.

The frigate Svetland, with the Grand Duke Alexis, is anchored here. Salutes were exchanged. Alexis afterward came ashore and visited the Russian Minister.

The Complications of the Fishkill, N. Y., National Bank.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Jan. 14.

A special to the Eagle, from Fishkill, says the affairs of the national bank in that village are still in doubt. Later reports make the deficiency in overdrafts range from $70,000 to $130,000. A run has commenced on the savings bank in the same building, which will be largely increased tomorrow, but the bank officers say they can meet all demands promptly. It is stated that the overdrafts on the national bank amount in several instances from $10,000 to $15,000 each.

THE RESISTLESS POWER OF MOVING ICE.

Damages Reported the Length of the Ohio River.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 14.

The movement of ice in the Ohio river has been almost general from Pittsburgh to Cairo, entailing heavy losses, chiefly upon owners of coal boats and barges. A dispatch from North Bend, twelve miles below here, reports over two hundred coal barges passing there in the ice today. At Mingo, near Steubenville, ten barges were swept away today, and four at Parkersburg. The ice in the Kanawha broke yesterday carrying away a wharf-boat and several barges. At Blennerhassett's Island, tow-boat N. J. Bigby and eight barges, and steamer M. S. Thanalhauser were carried off by the ice. Eight barges, supposed to be from the Kentucky river, passed Madison this afternoon. At Jeffersonville the river rose five feet in two hours, and the ice swept down at the rate of ten miles an hour, tearing away a large quantity of valuable timber from a ship yard, and sinking several barges laden with coal, and demolishing a portion of a ferry boat.

The Destruction at Pittsburgh.—The Damage Estimated at Two Millions.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 14.

The heavy ice gorges from the Upper Monongahela, which broke loose yesterday afternoon, reached here at six this morning, doing immense damage to the coal and steamboat interests in this place. Two passenger and seven tug boats were damaged, an immense number of coal flats, laden and empty, were carried away, and it is feared several lives lost. A rough estimate of the loss puts the figure at $2,000,000. The coal works along the Monongahela are so badly wrecked that it will require two months to repair the damage.

Later Movement of the Ice at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 14.

The ice which has remained stationary above the Newport bridge gave way at noon today, and striking the sunken steamer Calumet, turned the wreck around and swept it down with the current, making the boat a total loss. Farther down, the ice carried away about forty loaded and about as many empty coal boats, and at Delhi, ten miles below, took a small steamer, Alex. R. Kendall, with it. The damage by ice here today will aggregate fully $100,000.

THE INDIAN FAMINE.

Increase of Want in Bombay.—The Situation at Madras.—Weekly Reports to be Made.

LONDON, Jan. 15.

The Indian Office publishes a dispatch dated Jan. 12th, from Lord Carnovon, acting as Indian Secretary, in the absence of Lord Salisbury, to Lord Lytton, Governor General of Indians. It requests that a weekly summary be henceforth sent by telegraph, giving the main facts in regard to the famine. Lord Carnovon, summing up the information he has hitherto received, considers it alarming that 840,000 persons are employed on the relief work in Madras, and 250,000 in Bombay. The government estimates show that the famine in Bombay is gradually increasing. The maximum will be in April, when a million persons will require relief, after which it will gradually increase. In Madras the prospect is proportionally worse. The districts affected in Madras cover 80,000 square miles, and contain a population of eighteen millions. In Bombay the famine-stricken territory covers 54,000 square miles, and has a population of eight millions, five millions of which are in the districts more immediately affected.

1 extra nice new Two Seated Sleigh made at Albany, lined with crimson plush, with both pole and shafts, just the sleigh to make a Christmas present, and be remembered at every snow storm. 2 second hand Two Seated Sleighs, with pole only. 1 Single Sleigh, second hand. 1 second hand Coupe Carryall in good order and just painted, good serviceable storm carriage and cheap. 1 Brownell Carryall. 1 C Spring Top Phaeton Buggy. 1 Brewster Top Buggy. 2 Phaeton Top Buggy. 1 Open Buggy. 1 Two Seated Open Wagon. 4 Express Wagons. 1 nice Dog Cart with reversible seat, pole and shafts, just the carriage to drive 4-in-hand to. 1 very nice new Box Top Buggy. 1 very nice new Basket Top Phaeton, will sell a great deal lower now than in the Spring—makes a good close buggy, or a nice summer carriage. 3 second hand Beach Wagons, cheap. 1 second hand Landau, cheap. 3 Barouches in good order and newly painted. 1 Victoria with pole and shafts, cheap if sold now. 1 Covered Wagon, will carry 8 people easy. 1 new Express Wagon, cheap as we are giving up selling express wagons. 1 new Road Wagon, just the thing for business or pleasure. 1 Sargent Top Phaeton Buggy, been used but little, 1 Phaeton Top Buggy, one year's use and that with care. 1 second hand Light Dog Cart with shafts. 1 second hand Drag with seat behind, just the thing for 6 horse team, newly painted and in good order, and several other carriages all of which I shall be glad to sell for cash or paper that will be paid at maturity.

I would say that through the kindness of my friends, I have disposed of about 100 different vehicles the past few years having sold carriages to go to Providence, R. I., Stonington, Ct., Little Rock, Arkansas, Middletown, Portsmouth, Tiverton, Fall River, New Hampshire and various other places, all of which have proved as represented. To those having any House Painting, Graining or any other work, that they want done and are willing to pay a fair price to have the same done in a good and substantial manner, I shall be glad to give estimates, and will warrant all work done by me to be in every respect as represented. I return my thanks for the generous patronage which has been bestowed in the past and asked a continuance in the future. To my very numerous friends who have neglected to settle their bills for work done long ago,—if they will now respond by attending to them at once they will confer a great favor, as money is now very useful.

THE DUEL.

"MAY BE, MAY-BE NOT."

I.

Bennett and May, "Fred," and James,
Each would fight a duel;
May be Fred., may-be James,
May-be "pa," was cruel.

II.

May-be 'twas at Rouse's Point,
On our northern border;
May-be sure, 'twas farther south,
Source of all disorder.

III.

May-be they used swords and knives,
May-be Spencer's rifles;
Two proud knights, as brave as they,
Never stand on trifles.

IV.

May-be they used "buck and ball,"
May-be only powder;
Two "crack shots" at "pigeon ball,"
Blow their birds to chowder.

V.

James and Fred., each may be hurt,
One, or both, or either;
This may be as near the truth,
Say may-be 'tis neither.

VI.

"Fred" may live, or he may not,
All may live together;
May prove true, that "in the law,"
James may be May's brother.

LITERARY AND EDUCATIONAL

The February Atlantic will contain a three-page poem by Oliver Wendell Holmes on "How Not to Settle It." It is said to be a very humorous poem on the settlement of the Presidential question, in which the great issue is disposed of by the Doctor's Harvard class of 1829. The poem was read before the class at its forty-eighth annual supper a few evenings ago. Poems by Longfellow and Whittier will also appear in the February Atlantic.

President Angell of Michigan University says that the experiment of co-education of the sexes at that institution has proved successful, and that the woman who go there are able, without injuring their health, to rival the men in scholarship.

Nonsense pays in England. Lewis Carroll's "Alice's Adventures in Wonderland" has reached a circulation of 52,000; "Through the Looking-Glass," 40,000, and the "Hunting of the Snark" 16,000 copies. Macmillan & Co., are the happy publishers of this fortunate author, who is said to be a learned theological professor in one of the universities.

Bowdoin College has 511 students—three post-graduates forty three seniors, twenty five juniors, twenty four sophomores, forty nine freshmen, and ninety seven medical students.

Professor Chaplin, who for two years has held the chair of civil engineering in the state college at Orono, Me., has accepted a call to a professorship at the University of Japan in Yeddo. Prof. Chaplin graduated at West Point Military Academy four years since, second or third in his class, and is a son of Col. Daniel Chaplin of Bangor, who was killed at Strawberry Plains, Va., in 1864.

The Rochester Democrat indulges in the following reminiscence: "I wish I were you about two hours," she said with great tenderness. "And why, my dear?" he asked, with considerable interest. The War Department has issued a bull to the effect that the prognostications of the weather by the government soothsayer shall no more be designated as "Probabilities," but shall be known as "Indications," and obeyed and respected accordingly. Now, does this indicate a probability that the indications of meteorological phenomena heretofore indicated as probabilities were such improbable probabilities as to indicate an improbability of their probability being a probable probability of their indications?—[Easton Free Press.

As poor, insane George III. was one day breakfasting at Kew, the great scarcity of beef which was then prevailing in England became the subject of conversation. "Why do not people plant more beef?" asked the king. Upon being told that beef could not be raised from seed, he seemed still incredulous, and took some bits of beefsteak and went into the garden and planted them. The next morning he went out to see if they had sprouted, and found some snails. Thinking they were the oxen, he was heard crying out, "Here they are! Here they are, Charlotte, horns and all!"

We had terribly cold weather last week. A young man who took his darling out riding, thoughtlessly put his arm on the back of the cutter sent to fix the robes and shawls on her, and the cold affected his arm to such an extent that he was unable to withdraw it for over two hours. It is quite lame yet, but another damsel says that the back of a sofa and a good parlor fire will draw the pain out, and he has arranged to try the remedy Sunday evening.

"Doctor," said a gentleman to a physician, "my daughter had a fit this morning, and afterwards remained for half an hour without knowledge or understanding." "Oh," replied the doctor, "never mind that. Many people continue so all their lives."

This is told of Judge Abbott: When he was in Charleston, a few days ago, he asked the old darky at work in his room what made him so slow about building the fire. The aged African replied: "Fact is, judge, dar is no coal down stairs. I'se been up and down de alley and stole all de wood I could find, and, in de present demoralized condition of society, I can't do no better."

After-dinner orators: "It's in the wonderful insight inter 'uman nature that Dickens gets the pull over Thackeray; but on t'other hand it's in the brilliant shafts o' satire, t'gether with a keen sense o' humor, that Dickery gets the pull over Thackens. It's just this: Thickery is the humorist, and Dackens is the satirist. But after all, it's 'bsurb to instoot any comparison between Dackery and Thickens." So none was "instooted."—[London Judy.

A Boston merchant seeking to badger a one-legged son of Erin the other morning said to him, "I say, Patrick, with all your talk about Virgin Mother, I don't believe she was any better than my mother!" ## POEMS, AND AN ANTI-SLAVERY DRAMA,

By CAROLINE A. ROBBINS,

OF NEWPORT, R. I.

Price in paper, 50c.; in cloth, two styles, $1 and $1.25. For sale by W. A. BARBER, 108 Thames street.

"Throughout the poems, there is that underlying humanity, that heart and manifestation of sympathy with the weak and unfortunate, so characteristic of her life, an outflow of tender sensibilities vividly portraying the depth of her thoughts. These productions will possess especial interest to the friends of the writer, many of whom will be glad to avail themselves of this opportunity to procure such a souvenir of her genius and worth."—[Newport News.

The Newport Daily News and the Newport Journal.

The Newport Daily News is published every afternoon, (Sundays excepted,) at the News building, 19 Church street, by Davis & Pitman.

The Newport Journal is published at the same office every Saturday morning, and contains a selection of the best matter in the Daily, including editorial discussions of the topics of the week, literary miscellanies, and at least one good story, the latest markets, and a complete and comprehensive summary of the news,—local and general. The Journal is a large, 32 column paper, and contains more reading matter than any other paper in the southern part of the state.

Complaints regarding the irregular or improper delivery of either paper should be sent to the office at once.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Ordinary advertisements, $1 a square, for the first insertion, and 25 cents for each continuance. Ten lines or less, in this type, make a square. Advertisements in reading matter, are charged for, at 50 per cent, extra. A discount on these rates is allowed on all advertisements ordered for one week or longer. Funeral notices 50 cents each. Yearly advertisers are limited to their immediate business and are allowed twenty five changes a year. No gratuitous advertising for any object.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The Daily News, $5 per annum, or 12 cents a week, to carrier.

The Newport Journal, $2 per annum, or $1.50 if the whole year is paid for strictly in advance.

PRINTING.

Connected with the News is the largest general printing office in the city. All orders for work in this department will be promptly filled, and at reasonable prices. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

Probabilities.

For New England, rising followed by falling barometer, winds, shifting to easterly or southerly, low, succeeded by slowly rising temperature, increasing cloudiness, and followed by snow.

THE DAY.

Particulars of a great famine in India come to us by cable today.

Bishop Whittingham is suffering from a paralytic stroke and it is thought cannot recover.

The floating ice has done, so the telegraph reports, $2,000,000 worth of damage at Pittsburg.

The Boston Savings Banks are considering the propriety of reducing dividends to depositors to four per cent.

Mrs. Clara P. Bass who is lecturing on "Our Girls" in Boston and of whom the papers speak very highly, was formerly an employe of the News office.

Our neighbors up the river are as yet in a doubtful situation. Two cargoes of salt and one of brimstone went up the river yesterday bound for Providence. The General Assembly is in session.

David Dudley Field has transferred his peculiar tactics as a Tammany lawyer to congress. Having done what he could for his friend Tweed he now rushes to the aid of Tilden, where he hopes for equal success.

The scarlet fever is raging in Boston with great severity. The board of health pronounces it highly contagious and has issued an important circular giving instructions what to do in the management of cases.

Pinchback is reported as having gone over to the democrats, and the Boston Post and other papers that have not been accustomed to speak of him as an angel of light are now sounding his praises. Birds of a feather fl——.

James Gordon Bennett, like ancient Cain is fleeing from justice and according to newspaper reports has become a vagabond on the face of the earth. Report says he has fled to Europe and if the injuries of May should prove fatal will not soon return. An affair of honor you know!

A determined effort was made on Saturday at high water to pull off the steamer Newport, which is grounded in New Haven. Empty barges had been placed around her under the guards to raise her, and a steamer and two tugs pulled until two hawsers parted. It is said to be of no use trying to get her off, and she will probably remain where she is until the next perigee tide. She still lies easy.

It is now said that President Grant will recognize the Packard government in Louisiana. Since Pinchback has seceded there is hope for those that remain. Poor Pinch! Rejected and spurned by the republicans for these many years of weary waiting, the time of revenge has come at last. But how about the democracy? Can they carry the load which the republicans found too heavy? Perhaps so. The party has shown great vitality of late and it may survive the coming even of Pinchback.

It is understood that Donahue who was a witness before the coroner's jury in Middletown now testifies in contradiction of his first story. He reports a fight between the father and son on the evening of the catastrophe, and that the son knocked the father down with a chair. He says he did not tell this before, for fear of personal violence. It is a pity this witness has so low an estimate of his duties as a citizen and so slight a sense of the importance of truth telling when called upon under the most sacred and solemn circumstances. It may be that one story or the other is true.

INSANITY IN MASSACHUSETTS.—From recent statistics published it would seem that insanity is rapidly increasing in this country, and especially in Massachusetts, whose population is nevertheless noted for sobriety, education and refinement. The number of insane people within that commonwealth is estimated to be over four thousand, three-fourths of whom were treated at the various hospitals and asylums sustained by the state. On the first of January there were the following number of insane patients in state hospitals, viz: At Taunton, 706; at Northampton, 470; at Worcester, 490. Probably there are several hundred more in private hospitals and asylums, of which the public have no knowledge or record.

In his report on the Boston public schools Superintendent Philbrick, in referring to industrial schools, states that he should deprecate any attempt to put the workshop into the school, as the inevitable result would be to make a poor school and a poor workshop. But judicious efforts to supplement the school by the workshop, to put the workshop by the side of the school, are to be looked upon with favor. The best lesson which the school can give is, that persistent hard work of hand or brain, or both, is the only means of true success in life, and to perfect our system of education the peculiar advantages of both city and country should be combined. The country boy and girl, he says, must be better instructed in the usual school curriculum, and the city boy and girl must be better trained, industrially and physically.

TILDEN OR HAYES?

Is there no peace for a soul
That's distracted with doubt?
Let us know who is in;
Let us know who is out;
For our eyes they grow dim
As on figures we gaze
That make it for Tilden,
And make it for Hayes.

Oh! for seers and for prophets
Like those of the Jews—
They were better than papers
That plague us with news;
They were smarter than editors
All in a daze,
Who tell us 'tis Tilden,
And tell us 'tis Hayes.

Call the spooks and the mojums—
Perhaps they will know;
Summon Jade with his pencil,
And Home with his show;
Let them rap on our sconces
To end our amaze,
And say if 'tis Tilden,
Or say if 'tis Hayes!

REMARKABLE EXITS FROM LIFE.

When William the Silent felt himself dying, "Holland's greatest warrior" sent for two clergymen of the opposing religious factions, and bade them argue which of their creeds was the right one. "I see well enough," said the hardened unbeliever, when they had finished their discussion, "I see there is nothing certain except mathematics." With this he turned his face to the wall. He had ceased to live. A remarkable dependence upon the certainty of mathematics.

One who was not quite so confident endeavored to make "assurance doubly sure." I quote from Scaliger and De Thou, who both maintain that Hieronymus Cardan, a celebrated astronomer and mathematician, who lived in Pavia toward the middle of the sixteenth century, and may be better known to students as the discoverer of "Cardan's suspension," having foretold the day of his death by various calculations, starved himself to death for fear that his prediction would not be verified, and that his beloved science might suffer in consequence thereof.

This might be called being imbued with the spirit of the thing; but I think that my next example goes a step further still. "Greech, the celebrated commentator on Lucretius," says Voltaire in his "Dictionaire Philosophique, "wrote on his manuscript, 'N. B.—I must hang myself when I have finished my commentary.'" He kept his word in order to have the pleasure of ending his days like his author.

Champenetz, the secretary of Rivarol, during the French revolution of '93, innocently asked, when he had heard of his death sentence, whether a substitute would not do.

Andre Chenier did not trouble himself so far. Perceiving his friend Roucher, the author of the "Months," a poem not unlike Thomson's "Seasons," he apostrophized him quite freely by reciting the opening lines of the first scene of "Andromache." After which he kept silent until they arrived at the Barriere du Trone Renverse, near which the guillotine was erected. The hideous cart was met by a flock of sheep just entering Paris. It brought to the young author's mind the seventh Eclogue of Virgil, which he closed with "Torridus." "Torrida," corrected Roucher. His companion did not answer until they had mounted the scaffold, when he softly approached Roucher, and tapped him on the shoulder. "You were right; I forgot that summer was feminine in Latin."

That Montaigne should get up in his dying hours to pay his servants their salaries, for fear that his heirs might neglect it or dispute the amount, is not so wonderful, knowing what we do of the man and his principles; but that one of his very opposites should have some thoughts for his creditors after he should be gone is rather surprising. Naguelas, author of "Remarques sur la Grammaire Francaise," a not very strait-laced personage, did so, however. Notwithstanding his ample pension, he was loaded with debts to that extent that he no longer dared to appear in the street in the daytime, but only went out at night, a proceeding which gave rise to his friends calling him "The Owl." This condition of things made him very uneasy, as was proved at his death in his will. After having disposed of his wardrobe to satisfy all outstanding claims, he adds, with a perfect frankness and bonhommie: "But as there might still be left some creditors who cannot be paid, even after everything is sold, in that case my wish is that they shall sell my body to some surgeon, at the highest price that shall be paid for it, and that the amount shall be applied to the liquidation of those debts which I may still be owing in the world; so that, if I have not succeeded in being useful during my life, I may be at least so after my death." I wonder whether he ever heard of Dryden's body being detained by his creditors.—[Tinsley's Magazine.

Pets ov all kinds are a nooisance. Pet ideas are quite risky, and pet opinyuns, like seckond hand clothing, are worth just what yu kan git for them. A pet horse learns to be frisky, and a pet servant bekums cunning at the expense ov his honesty. Pet friends are the hardest to keep, and when yu lose them, change from hunny to gall, and pets or all kinds are very fastidious. A pet crow never knows what hiz next mischief will be, and ov all pets none are more nasty and kross than a pet parrott. Pet hobbys are eazy to mount, but hard to stick to; the ditches all along life's turnpike are filled with the riders. Live pets ov all kind are sure to be lazy, and very soon afterward git to be sassy. Pet a mule with a klub and he iz pashunt, but pet him with oats and he will kik out one end ov kreshun. Stranger, if yu must have a pet or perish, git a yung hedge hog (a male one iz preferable) and keep him housed in a barrel, and view him thru the bung hole whenever yu feel lonesum, and if this don't make yu happy, it certainly aint pets that ails yu.—[Billings.

In digging down a hillside near the town of Salzburg, Germany, a short time ago, ancient pottery works were discovered in which many rare and valuable pieces of pottery were found—notably a set illustrating biblical history from Adam and Eve to the ascension of Christ. Several ovens were filled with fine ware, and among the discoveries were a number of quaint old patterns. Some of the pottery bore inscriptions, and some was decorated with figures, such as the Emperor Constantine, Roman goddesses, and the coats-of-arms of Julich, Cleve and Berg, all beautifully colored and glazed.

Dr. Mary Walker is a noted character in Washington, and makes herself conspicuous by wearing male attire. For some reason or other she has become obnoxious to President Grant, and he refused to see her when she called at the White House. She thereupon wrote a note, asking an explanation. This the president gave on the back of the note, as follows:

"Whenever Mrs. Walker will appear at the door of the executive chamber in apparel becoming her sex, she will be admitted."

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—The bay is full of drift ice.

—Ice will be cheap next summer.

—The sleighing continues good.

—The storm signal was up all day yesterday. It is down today.

—Coasting is now very popular among the old as well as the young of both sexes.

—The flags on the steamer City of Newport were at half-mast yesterday, in respect to the memory of Mr. Donahue.

—John Roach was arrested on Green Lane yesterday afternoon by Officer Dring upon complaint of the boy's mother.

—A son of Thomas Stevens had his foot injured while sledding on Saturday, and some of the bones were dislocated. Dr. John H. Sweet was called.

—The revenue cutters Samuel Dexter and Grant, with the steamer Albatross and tug Cora Staples were to make an effort this morning to get off the steamer Newport, ashore at New Haven.

—Colonel Lawrence Kip, one of our summer residents, has purchased P. Lorillard's fast trotting mares Princess and Belle of Hartford. Both these mares can trot in 2:30 single and can go pretty near those figures together.

—The quarterly praise meeting at the Union Congregational church, Division street, took place last night. The church was filled to overflowing and the exercises were of an interesting character. Rev. Dr. Taylor of Elmwood and the pastor made addresses. The singing by the choir was with orchestral accompaniment and was good.

—Capt. Gloss of the wrecked schooner Martha A. has not heard anything as yet from his owners or from the owners of the steamer City of Fitchburg which ran the schooner down last Wednesday morning. The vessel is more seriously damaged than was at first supposed, her stem being completely gone. We learn that the owners of the steamer will, through Mr. John Coggeshall, the agent of the board of underwriters, settle the damages as speedily as possible.

—The funeral of John Donahue was solemnized from St. Mary's church yesterday afternoon and was attended by about four hundred persons, including Capt. Kelley and all the officers and employes of the American Steamboat Company in this city. Both of the grand army posts attended, although he was not a member, and were accompanied by a drum and fife. Mr. Donahue was respected by all who knew him and the community paid a fitting tribute to his memory.

PERSONAL.—George Denniston, Jr., who was locked up in jail in Providence, Friday, upon a charge of violation of the United States revenue laws, and in default of bail in the sum of $1000, is the alderman of the Fifth Ward, and recently failed in business here, and was sold out by the auctioneer.—[Providence Journal.

SCHOONER ASHORE.—Patrolman Hall, of Life Saving Station 35, discovered, about 3 A. M., on Saturday a vessel ashore, ½ miles north of the light. The crew from the life station boarded the vessel, which proved to be the Minnehaha, Capt. Swift, of New Bedford, from New York to New Bedford, in ballast. By the united efforts of the crew of the life saving station, the vessel was floated. The damage to the vessel is slight.

MARINE NOTES.

The brig Ida from Turk's Island arrived here Saturday night with a cargo of salt for Providence. She has been on the passage 14 days and has had a very rough time of it. She split some of her sails, stove boat and bulwarks and was obliged to throw overboard a portion of her cargo.

The barkentine Serio, from Gigenta, Italy, with cargo of brimstone for Providence, arrived here Saturday afternoon. She has been on the passage 115 days.

Also arrived bark Cabrione, Capt. Hopkins, 21 days from Bonnire, with a cargo of salt for Providence.

THE PARAN STEVENS CASE.—The late Paran Stevens not long before his death brought suit against ex-Sheriff Brennan of New York, to recover $3,400, value of furniture taken by the sheriff on December 5, 1871, from No. 250 Fifth avenue. The complaint in the case, which was made on January 15, 1872, is sworn to by Mr. Stevens, the autograph of the deceased millionaire showing a tremulous chirography usually attendant upon advanced age. Mrs. Marietta Stevens brings the present suit. It came to trial Friday in New York, before Judge Van Hoesen. The defence is that Messrs. Herter & Marsh sold the furniture in question to E. R. Stevens, through false representations made by the latter, and that, believing they had a right to recover possession, they called upon the sheriff to seize it, which was done. It is claimed for the plaintiff that the same was his property, having been given him in payment of rent.

THE BROWN CASE.

A NEW PHASE OF THE CASE.—ANOTHER WARRANT ISSUED.—THE CRIME OF ARSON CHARGED.—YOUNG BROWN IN JAIL.

On Saturday Charles S. Brown who was under arrest for a slight offence was taken from the jail in this city and carried to Middletown, where a new warrant was served upon him as issued by Trial Justice Geo. A. Brown. Brown was in charge of Deputy Sheriff Lake who was accompanied by Judge Topham.

The warrant charges Brown with the crime of arson in that he did feloniously and maliciously set fire to a dwelling house in said Middletown in the night time and there being then and there at the time of writing said offence, one person lawfully in the dwelling house so burned. It is dated Middletown, Jan. 11, 1877.

The prisoner waived an examination and was adjudged probably guilty and bound over to the March term of the supreme court for trial. He was not at all moved and does not appear to realize the terrible crime with which he is charged. He was returned to the care and safe keeping of Mr. Jones, the efficient keeper of the county jail.

Trial Justice Brown has ordered the brothers of the prisoner to look out for the interests of the farm and other property belonging to the prisoner. Counsel will be secured for him and it is understood that he will make a strong fight. One of our well-known citizens has offered to go bail for him.

Opinion seems to be much divided among the inhabitants of Middletown concerning the case, many of them believing Brown innocent notwithstanding the strong circumstantial evidence against him. He himself still persists in declaring his innocence.

WISDOM.

Who has not known ill fortune, never knew himself, or his own virtue.

We can hardly learn humility and tenderness enough except by suffering.—[George Eliot.

Those who come to you to talk about others are the ones who go to others to talk about you.

To sneer and denounce is a very easy way of assuming a great deal of wisdom, and concealing a great deal of ignorance.

Truth is a torch, but one of enormous size; so that we try to slink past it in rather a blinking fashion, for fear it should burn us.

Hard speech between those who have loved is hideous in the memory, like the sight of greatness and beauty sunk into vice and rags.

Don't look too hard, except for something agreeable. We can find all the disagreeable things in the world between our own hats and boots.

It is God himself who proclaims peace, who justly might have proclaimed war; he lets the world of mankind know that he is willing to be at peace with them, through Jesus Christ.—[Henry.

Sydney Smith's definition of marriage: "It resembles a pair of shears, so joined that they cannot be separated; often moving in opposite directions, yet always punishing any one who comes between them."

Everything connected with our personality fails. Nature never spares the individual. We are always balked of complete success. No prosperity is promised to that. We have indemnity only in the success of that to which we belong.—[Emerson.

Many a life that might have been most efficient if rightly directed, has been lost to the world and doomed to mortifying failure, because men have not been sufficiently developed to know their own peculiar endowments or to make intelligent choice of a vocation.

We know not what we are, any more than what we shall be. It is a high, solemn, most awful thought for every individual man, that his earthly influence which has had a commencement, will never through all ages, were he the very meanest of us, have an end! What is done is done, has already blended itself with the boundless, everliving, ever-working universe, and will also work there for good or evil, openly or secretly, throughout all time.—[Voltaire.

Neither by rule, nor custom, nor ecclesiastical legislation, should any man or woman be forbidden to teach the ignorant, heal the sick, and convert the souls of men. Nor can any ceremonial service, or cooperation of many prelates, give any dignity or needed sanction to him who would engage in the Christian work of love. The dignity which belongs to the ministers of grace comes to them from the sanction of God, and not from the indorsement of men—comes to them from the high and holy nature of their labors, and not from the bestowment of earthly dignitaries.—[W. H. H. Murray.

The question whether chimes in a church spire constitute a "nuisance" is now before a court in Philadelphia. A bill in equity has been filed setting forth that complainants live within a radius of one eighth of a mile of St. Mark's Church on Locust street, and that that part of the city is occupied by handsome residences, the value of which has been enhanced by supposed immunity from nuisance. The spire of the church was completed in 1852, but no bell was ever used until 1876, when four large bells were put into the tower and are now rung every day. It is claimed that the noise of the bells is high, loud and discordant, shaking the walls of the nearest houses and rendering impossible conversation thereinn. They complain of the noise as a nuisance which disturbs the rest of invalids and infants, the sick and nervous, and destroys much that goes to make up the peace and happiness of home life. They therefore ask the court to enjoin the ringing of those bells as a nuisance, or, in case it is lawful, to regulate the ringing.

The public will be very careful not to associate any of the disgrace attending the Bennett May trouble with Miss May. That young lady is spoken of in the highest terms by every one, and, because she was so unfortunate as to have two pig-headed, unmannerly cubs for a brother and lover it does not detract one iota from the estimation in which she should be held or lessen the delicate consideration with which she should be treated by the public commentators.—[Boston Post.

The contest between the trustees of the Lick estate and the heirs has been finally arranged. John H., a natural son of James Lick, receives $553,000, from which he pays $72,000 to other heirs, in various amounts. This leaves the trustees in a position to carry out the conditions of the trust deed, and gives clear title to all real estate included in the trust. The value of the property involved is estimated at $3,300,000.

When the North Pole is reached, the South Pole will become the goal of the nations' rivalry, and it is stimulating to know that it is harder to reach than the other. Ross's southernmost point was 700 miles from the pole, and beyond it a cliff of ice, over 500 feet high, moved about by the gales, and a great part of it subject to high winds and incessant snow.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

DISEASE GROWS APACE,

like an ill wind, and cannot be mastered too early. What is a trifling attack of sickness today may, if unattended to, become a serious case in a week. Small ailments should be nipped in the bud before they blossom into full blown maladies. If this advice were attended to, many a heavy bill for medical attendance might be avoided. When the liver is disordered, the stomach foul, the bowels obstructed, or the nerves disturbed, resort should at once be had to that supreme remedy, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a few doses of which will restore healthy action and put the system in perfect order. It is a wise precaution to keep this incomparable preventive in the house, since it checks, with unrivalled promptitude, disorders which breed others far more dangerous, and in their latest developments are themselves often fatal.

Time works wonders, and so does HUNT'S REMEDY. Suffering from Dropsy, Bright's Disease, Kidney, Bladder and Glandular Complaints, Retention and Incontinence of Urine, Gravel, Diabetes, Pain in the Back and Loins, and afflictions of the Urino-Genital Organs, will disappear after a few doses of HUNT'S REMEDY.

THROAT DISEASES often commence with a Cold, Cough, or unusual exertion of the voice. These insipient symptoms are allayed by the use of BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES, which if neglected often result in a chronic trouble of the Throat.

READ AND LEARN FOR YOURSELF.

Many valuable discoveries and much useful knowledge is kept from the world, because of the immense expense making them known to the people. This is not the case with BOCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP. Although but a few years introduced into this country its sale now reaches every town and village in the United States. Its wonderful success in curing consumption, severe coughs, asthma, and all other diseases of the throat and lungs, was first made known by distributing every year, for three years, over 400,000 bottles to the afflicted, free of charge, by druggists. No such a test of merit was ever given before to any other preparation. Could you ask more? Go to your druggist James H. Taylor and get a bottle for 75 cents and try it. Sample bottles 10 cents.

DIED.

HIMES.—In North Kingstown, 15th inst., Wanton Himes, aged 80 years.

HALSEY.—In Wickford, 13th inst., Mr. Jeremiah Halsey, aged 26 years. The third member of the family that has died with fever within four months in the same house.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEA WEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS.—These deservedly celebrated and popular medicines have effected a revolution in the healing art, and proved the fallacy of several maxims which have for many years obstructed the progress of medical science. The false supposition that "consumption is incurable" deterred physicians from attempting to find remedies for that disease, and patients afflicted with it reconciled themselves to death without making an effort to escape from a doom which they supposed to be unavoidable. It is now proved, however, that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED, and that it HAS BEEN cured in a very great number of cases (some of them apparently desperate ones) by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone; and in other cases by the same medicine in connection with Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, one or both, according to the requirements of the case.

Dr. Schenck himself, who enjoyed uninterrupted good health for more than forty years, was supposed, at one time to be at the very gate of death, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless, and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and, since his recovery, many thousands similarly affected have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success.

Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists.

The recent rapid decline in gold having directed inquiry towards first class currency investments, Messrs. Kuhn, Loeb & Co., invites proposal for $2,500,000 Cincinnati 7 3-10 bonds the balance of the issue authorized by the Legislature of the State of Ohio for the city of Cincinnati. The character of this security as well as the high rate of interest offered make this a tempting investment and it will doubtless command a quick sale at high prices.

NO CHANGE OF CARS, no delay and vexation of transfer in New York, but a continuous ride, in the same car, from Boston to Richmond and Danville, are advantages which commend the N. Y. & N. E. PERPETUAL SUMMER.

We take pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement, in another column, of the Nassau Mail Steamship Line. Nassau has long been most favorably known as a place of winter resort, not only for invalids, who rarely fail to improve under a climate where the temperature never falls below 60° Fahrenheit nor rises above 82°, and where the variation does not exceed 5° in twenty four hours, but also to tourists, to whom the varied scenery of New Providence and the surrounding islands are a source of constant enjoyment.

Heretofore the long sea voyage, and the transfer outside the bar to the shore, and the infrequent communication have been a barrier in the minds of many; but the schedule now by the present fine steamers running from Savannah, Ga., direct, every ten days, making the trip in forty eight hours, and in sight of land nearly the entire distance. Passengers from the North can go by steamship to Savannah, or by rail from all parts of the country, thus giving the option of a short sea voyage to or from Savannah, or a longer voyage to or from New York.

Excursion Tickets are issued, available from prominent points in the United States and Canada by steamer from New York to Savannah, and thence direct to Nassau and return, also including a trip to Florida. Those intending to take advantage of this attractive excursion will find all necessary information at the office of Murray, Ferris & Co., 62 South street, New York. jan15

Notices.

January Bills-1877.

Within the first week of the month all bills due the undersigned will be presented for payment. These bills are all due, some are much over due. All should be paid in the early part of the month. Most fortunately for the undersigned, many of these bills will reach people of such exalted integrity that immediately upon receiving them they will take measures for their payment. It is of much importance to him that payment should be promptly made, and great hopes are entertained that the honorable example of the above named class will so pervade the community that a contemplated list of those unworthy of credit will contain but few names.

BUSINESS!
We hope that our friends have not exhausted their stock of "the needful" the past holidays, as we are now on the alert to lighten them of a little of the burden, providing, first, however, they may be induced by some means or other, to call at our establishment and leave an order to paint their house.
We have waited patiently for the end of 1876, and have not even enumerated a list of the goods we had for sale during the holidays, but we assure you, our stock consists of a choice selection of PAINTS,
OILS,
VARNISHES,
PUTTY,
&c., &c.,
And we are now prepared to fill out the largest order you may favor us with at the most reasonable cost, and satisfaction guaranteed.

SEWERAGE.

We printed a few days since a brief notice of a system of village drainage which has been introduced in Lennox, under the superintendence of Colonel George E. Waring, Jr. From the statement there given it would appear that any inland village of one or two thousand inhabitants might dispose of its sewage by dispersing it upon adjoining farming lands, perhaps with entire impunity and even with advantage to the soil, although we are yet to learn how successfully the plan will work in the winter months. But it must be evident that a system which will work without serious difficulties in a village not larger than Lennox would be inadequate in a thickly-settled place like Worcester. The immense amount of sewage in a city of 20,000 inhabitants, or even of 10,000, could not be absorbed except by a large area of land; and in case the sewage is distributed through pipes, with the tile pipes for fresh water, as is the case in Lennox, the land must be level, and the expense might even equal the cost of large sewers.

It is stated in one of Alderman Mechi's books that the town of Norwich, England, provided itself with 1300 acres upon which to dispose of its sewage. In Great Britain the large estates in the possession of wealthy proprietors afford an opportunity for the disposal of sewage and the complete working out of experiments. The Earl of Warwick, for example, is said to have contracted with the authorities of Leamington for all its sewage, and to pay therefor £450 per annum, the town to lay the mains to his estate, a distance of four miles away.

The old city of Coventry sends all its sewage through drains from which the bulk of surface rain water is rejected to four large basins, in which, by chemical means, the offensive matter is precipitated and the water purified. It is then drawn off, clear and inoffensive, into the river, while the residuum is converted into poudrette and sold in cakes. It is said that these sales pay all the cost.

Whatever may be the propriety or impropriety of utilizing sewage, it is now maintained in England that it is unwise to build sewage drains large enough to take the surface rain water. To do this they have to be constructed of enormous size. One in West Philadelphia has a diameter of twenty-one feet. While the demand upon our inland rivers and lakes for the use of man is increasing, if the rain water of the towns on their borders is all to be turned into the sewers, and this vast amount of sewage to be run into the sewers, where are we to turn for water for household purposes? Is it not manifest that sewage and the rainfall should be treated separately; that open drains and the old water courses should be used for the one, and that the other should be treated according to its nature and utilized wherever circumstances will permit?—[Boston Advertiser.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW'S

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething,
greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

Sure to Regulate the Bowels.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to Your Infants.
We have put up and sold this article for years, and CAN SAY IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILLMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in

Thousands of Cases.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels, and Wind Colic.

We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

FOR SALE.—Lots suitable for summer residences at Goddington Point. This is one of the most desirable locations in the vicinity of Newport, and affords views of the city, harbor and bay unsurpassed. The Old Colony Railroad has a station here, so that residents from Boston, Fall River, Taunton and other cities in New England can be landed at their own doors. Very eligible lots can be had at ten cents a foot. A house located a short distance from the station, and having a unobstructed water view will be sold very low. This whole property will, in a few years be worth many times its present value. No other such opportunity for investors of capital is presented in this city. For particulars apply at the DAILY NEWS office.

H EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the patent office.

EDMUND BURKE, late Commissioner of Patents."

BOSTON, October 19, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: you procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly,

GEORGE DRAPER.

TO THE LOVERS of STEREOSCOPIC VIEWS.

TAKE ATTENTION of the public is invited to the following views from negative by J. A. WILLIAMS, which is believed to be the best and largest collection of the gems of Newport scenery ever offered.

The negatives are all carefully taken with the best materials and instruments and aim to present not merely patches of landscapes from points chosen at random as is the case with many others, but, views which shall combine within themselves all the best elements of a picture in the artistic sense.

We would call particular attention to our new cabinet size views taken the present season, 13th, which exhibit with all the fidelity of the stereoscope.

Parties who may wish to make presents to their friends abroad, or to carry home memento of Newport, cannot make a more acceptable choice than by selecting from the many beautiful views of Newport and surroundings.

Interiors and exteriors of houses taken to order. Also parties, horses, &c.
